Do you have beautiful photography of life in East Texas that you would like to share? The City of Longview is preparing a print calendar for 2013, and they want to include photography from the local area. Winter, summer, spring, autumn, playgrounds, parks, sunsets, trees, landscapes, farms, artwork, or any other aspect of East Texas life.

If you have a photo you think would be appropriate, please submit according to the instructions below. The photo project is just-for-fun. No monetary prizes will be awarded. Not all submissions will be featured.

Types of Photos to Enter:

- Photos that were taken by you
- Color, black and white, or partially desaturated photos.
- Photos taken at any time; historical photos are allowed.
- Composite photos in which you combine more than one photo into what looks like a single image (please identify the image as a composite photo during submission).

Types of Photos NOT to enter:

- Photos you didn't take, or for which someone else owns the copyright.
- Photos that show someone else's copyrighted work (example: a photo of a someone else's painting).
- Photos that serve mainly to advertise a product.
- Photos that show nudity, drugs, alcohol, violence, or gang activity.
- Photos that are illegal or prohibited.
